With Whale Day attendants purchasing scrip to exchange for products and food, no cash handling allows easy sales tracking. Because Pacific Whale Foundation is a non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization, your donation (the deposit and 50% of sales) will be tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law.

Helpful Hint: What we have found to be the most successful price range for food items is anywhere between $3 to $7. This is, of course, up to your discretion but it might be helpful information.
